GRAND CONCERT TO-BIGHT-LITTLE CLARA PIBREE THE ATTRACTION .- Our citizens are already aware that a concert will be given to-night in Brainard's Hall, under the diection of Prof. J. S. Black, of the Rocheser, New York, Academy of Music, little Clara Fisher, a girl twelve years of age, being the central figure of the musical group. They are also familiar with the eading facts in her life. She is a remarkable character, a genius, a prodigy. Although not yet arrived at her teens, she has received a thorough musical education, and now having, as it were, distanced her teachers, essays to appear in public as an artiste. Her appearance in New York State created everywhere a great furere. The press speak of her in terms so high that, had we not already heard her recitations, we might be inclined to regard them more retained praise. Incre is no transition that, sasisted by her mother, Mrs. Fisher, Rhodes, Prime Tenere, and Prof. J. S. Biack, Basso, she will give a musical entertainment of a very high order of merit. Mrs. Fisher and her family were driven

DEMOCRATIC SERENADE. Pendleton and Pugh Orate, Plous TALK TO THE FAITHFUL.

Last evening was set apart by the Democ acy of this city to the doings of preliminary meetings, but the unterrified and unwashed double-quicked it through their business of appointing delegates, that they might join the monster procession which, headed by the Father Matthew Band, was o proceed to the Weddell House and tender. in the way of a seronade, their compliments to Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton and Hon. Geo-E. Pugh. A little after 9 o'clock the crowd gathered at the south-east corner of the Weddell. It was a monstrous meeting,n point of numbers, we mean. We understand that General Fitch afterwards treated the whole assembly, and his bill was $3,80 We do not youch for the figures. Enthusiasm ran high. Democrats threw off so much latent heat, that the thermometer stood at 95°. The crowd was poorly ventilated, oc-casioning a good deal of stench and suffocation. We believe, however, that no one in the crowd fainted except a miscegenation

The band struck up, and again struck up, is no speaker was ready to loom into view. At length General J. W. Fitch stated that he had the honor to introduce to the imnense assemblage Hon. George H. Pendleon. The announcement was received with cheers, when that gentleman stepped forward upon the belcony, and spoke briefly, ward upon the balcony, and spoke briefly, in substance, as allows:

He thanked them. He had often had occasion to acknowledge the courtesy of the Democracy of Cleveland. You have tonight met and chosen delegates to a county convention. He was glad to hear it. It was another evidence of that spirit of persistency and undying energy which has always characterized the party. Your pluck and persistence here on the Reserve, amid political foes, has elicited the admiration of the Democratic party in the rest of the State. There was never a time when your exertions are more needed, no time when the questions and issues are more important than now. What are they? One portant than now. What are they? One is the restoration of the Union. The plan of restoration, as held by our adversaries, involves the reconstruction of the Constitu-tion and the remodeling of the government. He claimed that in the Federal Convention He claimed that in the Federal Convention of the fathers framing the Constitution, there was a recognition and triumph of the principle of State Rights. But our opponents will not leave this question to the decision of that document. Nor are they willing to abide the decision of the Constitution on the question of Negro Suffrage, the rule of representation in Congress, &c. They are not in favor of maintaining the equality of the States and extending the Constitution to all the States. If they are, why not withdraw the military from all the States and recognize personal liberty therein? If they do not do this, they show themselves the Disunion party. Their claim to the name and character of a Union party is robbery.

Union party is robbery.

After certain other observations and com pliments, he retired amid the cheers of the immense crowd. The band struck up again, and presently Gen. Fitch was happy to introduce Hon. Geo. E. Pugh. He was welcomed with cheers, when he declared that he considered it the biggest thing in the world to be a member of the Democratic party. [Immense applause.] It is his greatest privilege to be a humble, faithful member of the party,—not a renegade like Stanton, Holtand Tod,-but a "high private" going with you in storm and sun carrying the giorious flag [but not carrying the election.] He proceeded to compare the present con-dition of the country with that when the Democratic party was in power. Now we have an internal Revenue Collector. Then we had no Provost Marshal. Where stand we? (Cheers.) We are caten up with taxation. (Great applause.) As a lawyer he was taxed, but the rich bondholder is ex-empt. Such discrimination shall not much longer exist. Unconstitutional or not, the bondholder shall be taxed. We toil and sweat and must be taxed graviously, while the wealthy, indolent bondholders stalk exthey shall be vores. The pennstell them made up its mile to this.

and yet the abolitionists will not let them in lest, when they come to vote again, abolitionism will come to its end.

He complimented them for their glorious work this evening in attending the primary meetings. Nominate your county ticket, Keep in the party. Don't try to be a better Catholic than the Pope, and thus fly off like Stanton, Holt and Tod. He had known Gen. Morgan ten years. He has always been the purest Democrat the speaker ever Gen. Morgan ten years. He has always been the purest Democrat the speaker ever knew. Go into the fight. Don't get discouraged. [Sensation.] He had voted the Democratic ticket twenty years. Always made him feel good to vote it. [Cheers.] The party had honored him. He hoped it wouldn't make him a candidate again, but he should die, as he had lived, a Democrat. The band played another piece, when the crowd ratired.

DEMOCRATIC WARD MEETINGS Election of Delegates to the County

The Democrats of the different wards of the city met at their usual place for holding primary meetings, last evening, for the purpose of electing delegates to attend a County Convention to be held in National Hall next Saturday, September 9th. The Convention is called for the nomination of county officers to be gloriously defeated at the ersuing election.

THE STEREOFTHOR,-The threatening sky and the blackness of the night prevented a large house from gathering at Brainard's Hall last evening, but the exhibition went off all the same, and gave unbounded delight to all who witnessed the views. There will not be an exhibition to-night, the proprietor of the stereopticon having generously given way to little Clara Fisher who, assisted by other artists, will give choice concert at the Hall. Exhibition will, however, be resumed on Saturday. A matinee will be given at two o'clock that afternoon and a "show" in the evening.

LOUAL NOTIUES. A Timely Warning to the Sick.

It is especially important at this time, when the parkets of the United States are flooded with the direct poisons, under the name of imported liquors, and when domestic compounds purporting to b medizinal, but not a whit less pernicious, are her alded to the world as "sovereign remedies," the the public should fully understand the facts. Be ft known, then, that while all the diffusive stimulants called liquors are impure, and all the Tonic containing alcohol are manufactured with a flery article containing ampl or fuel oil, a mertal poison, HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT-TEES contain none of these things, but a combination of pure essence of Bye with the pure juices of the most valuable stomachic, anti-bilious, and aperient horbs and plants, and that as a safe and rapid remedy for Dyspepsis and all its kindred ompiaints, this preparation stands before th world without a rival or competitor. Its sales to fay are equal to the combined sales of all the other tonics advertised in the United States, and the certificates which authenticate its usefulness as signed by individuals of the highest standing in every professional calling and walk of life.
